

Terms of Service

Last updated: July 6, 2026 · Effective immediately

These Terms of Service ("Terms") govern your use of the Trailair mobile application ("the app", "the service"). By installing or using Trailair, you agree to these Terms. If you do not agree, do not use the app.

1. The service

Trailair is a free cinephile companion that lets you discover films, build a personal watchlist, mark seen films, follow your favourite actors, get film recommendations from a mood-based finder, take cinema quizzes, read a curated encyclopedia and daily journal, and share your results. Film metadata is provided by The Movie Database (TMDB); we do not host or stream any film content ourselves. Trailers open in the official YouTube app or your browser.

2. License granted to you

Subject to your compliance with these Terms, we grant you a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable license to install and use Trailair on Apple devices you own or control, for personal, non-commercial use only.

3. Acceptable use

You agree not to:

- Reverse-engineer, decompile, or attempt to extract the source code, except where expressly permitted by applicable law
- Use Trailair to violate any law or third-party right
- Interfere with the proper operation of the app or the third-party services it relies on
- Circumvent advertising or in-app limitations
- Resell, rent, or sublicense access to the app

4. Advertising

Trailair is offered free of charge and includes advertising delivered by Google AdMob. By using the app you acknowledge that ads will be displayed. See the Privacy Policy for details on how advertising works, including your right to decline personalised ads via App Tracking Transparency.

5. Third-party content

Film posters, descriptions, trailers and metadata are provided by The Movie Database \(TMDB\). Trailair is not endorsed or certified by TMDB. Ratings may be provided by OMDb (Rotten Tomatoes, Metacritic, IMDb). Where Trailair links to external services (streaming platforms, YouTube trailers), use of those services is governed by their own terms.

6. Intellectual property

Trailair, including its visual design, logo, original editorial content and source code, is the property of its publisher and protected by copyright. Film posters, titles, and synopses remain the property of their respective rights holders, used here under TMDB's API terms.

7. Disclaimer of warranties

The app is provided "as is" and "as available", without warranties of any kind, whether express or implied, including merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, accuracy, or non-infringement. We do not guarantee that film information is complete, accurate or up to date, nor that the service will be uninterrupted or error-free.

8. Limitation of liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, we shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, or punitive damages, or for any loss of data, revenue or goodwill arising out of your use of Trailair. Our aggregate liability shall not exceed the amount you paid for the app, which for the free version equals zero. Nothing in these Terms limits liability that cannot be excluded under applicable law (e.g. consumer protection rights in your country of residence).

9. Termination

You may stop using Trailair at any time by uninstalling the app. We may suspend or terminate access if you violate these Terms or applicable law.

10. Changes to the Terms

We may update these Terms occasionally. The "Last updated" date reflects the most recent revision. Continued use of the app after a change constitutes acceptance of the new Terms.

11. Governing law

These Terms are governed by the laws of the country in which you reside. Any dispute that cannot be resolved amicably may be brought before the competent courts of your country of residence. Nothing in these Terms deprives you of the mandatory consumer protection rules that apply to you under the law of your country of residence.
